2016 ROSÉ OF SYRAH

Proprietors: Betsy and David Lawer
Winemaker: Cary Gott, Kelly DeIanni

Tasting Notes: Brilliant shades of salmon and pink combine to present a light and elegant Rosé that is bursting with vibrant young berry flavors. Strawberry, raspberry and a hint of grapefruit dominate the aromatics, with a background hint of subtle rose petal. Raspberry, strawberry and cranberry laced with an underlying note of pomegranate add to the flavorful makeup of this youthful Rosé that finishes bright and full of life. This Rose' will be wonderful on a nice spring day - Cary Gott, 91 Points Wine Enthusiast

Lawer 2016 Estate Vineyard Rosé of Syrah (Knights Valley); $24, 91 points. Perfumed and floral, crisp and modulated in acidity, this is an exuberant expression of the variety. Ample acidity and cherry and orange flavors unfold on the palate, followed by a brisk finish that's laced in spicy nuance. -V.B.

WINEENTHUSIAST

11 West Coast Rosés To Help You Beat the Heat

From California up the coast to Oregon and Washington, here are 11 bottles showcasing the diversity of American wine regions producing outstanding rosé.

BY WINE ENTHUSIAST

Great rosé is being made all over the world, but we want to shine the spotlight on the West Coast of the U.S. for some unique bottles. Explore Rhône-style blends using a mix of Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre as well as Cinsault. Also look for single-varietal bottlings of Pinot Noir that have been turning heads in both California and Oregon. And, in Washington taste the exciting rosés being made from Cabernet Franc.

Grab a glass and start a West Coast rosé road trip.
